So some clarification here. Im the dlanc area wide rep and have been through these elections.

The registration to vote online closes on March 2nd. So this applies to anybody who plans to vote from home, so email them and contact them now. DONE is always very very slow from the time you register until the time you get to vote. So they might register today and 5 days later get the email with a link to vote.

The pop-up polls will continue as planned. At the polls, they check you ID, confirm you are who you are, and allow you to vote. The registration deadline doesn't apply to them.

In person voting is the same as pop-up polls.

I highly recommend that if you work or are by any of the pop-up polls, you go there and drag whoever you can. That is the easiest way to be sure they vote.
